

I fully support the right of satellite radio to broadcast local information. Afterall, this is what I pay the $$ for! If my local radio stations did a good enough job of giving me what I wanted, I wouldn't go to an outside source (free market economy).I look forward to seeing the growth of this new technology.